

P056. Jack L. Giroux Fonds.
1954-1978 (predominant 1957-1967).
10 centimeters of textual records;

Biographical sketch: Jack L. Giroux, conductor for the CPR, was a union activist and Vice Chairman of the Sudbury chapter of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen (B.R.T.), Lodge 249, for a period of ten years between 1957-1967.

Scope and Content: Jack L. Giroux fonds documents Giroux's role as representative for the B.R.T. Lodge 249 Sudbury chapter and the different issues of the union and its membership. The correspondence consisting mostly of exchanges between the different chapters and the head office of the union informs us of union business. The challenges met by the union and the different work related concerns for the safety of the railway workers, the scheduling and work conditions are also address in the correspondence. Printed arbitration cases issued by the Canadian Railway Office, grievance procedures, constitutions and switching limits (zoning) as well as documentation regarding the 1966 B.R.T. strike in Sudbury are also included in this fonds.

Note: custodial history: The fonds was donated to N.O.L.I.A., the holdings of which were later transferred to the Laurentian University Archives in July of 1982.

Finding Aid: The fonds is not processed. A preliminary listing is available.
